GENEALOGY OF THE CONDE FAMILY IN AMERICA.

CONTRIBUTED BY STEPHEN ELMER SLOCUM, PH.D.,
244 East Montgomery Avenue, Ardmore, Pennsylvania.

2011570

The following genealogical record relates to the original settler in New York bearing the name of Conde, and to the five succeeding generations of this settler's descendants. Every name and date included in this genealogy has been carefully verified from original sources, and so far as possible, references are given to church records, burial markers, historical documents and family Bibles, where these data may be affirmed.

It is said by some that the original settler of this name in New York, Adam Conde, was descended through Godfrey de Conde, a Huguenot of the Sixteenth Century, from the royal family of France that produced the Great Conde (le Grand Conde). The writer found a card index in the Bibliotheque Wallonne, Pieterskerkhof, 48, Leiden, Holland, listing perhaps a hundred individuals named Conde. However, Adam Conde was brought over to America as a child, and on the long voyage both his parents died of ship fever. For this reason, the archives of Leiden are of no service in tracing the family until the name of Adam Conde's parents can be ascertained. Upon his arrival in America, the child, Adam Conde, found a home in the family of Johannes Lansing (1675-1771), who was one of the early Dutch settlers of Albany, New York. As Johannes Lansing married Helena Sanders in 1704, Adam Conde probably reached America subsequent to that date.

On Sept. 29, 1724, Adam Conde was elected Constable of the First Ward of Albany for the ensuing year; and on Sept. 29, 1725, he was elected High Constable of Albany for the ensuing year (Munsell: "Annals of Albany," Vol. 8). Subsequently Adam Conde removed to Schenectady, New York, and on April 12, 1734, he joined the Reformed Dutch Church at Schenectady (Records of the Rfd. Dutch Ch., Sch'dy., 1694-1800). His name appears on a list of freeholders of the Town of Schenectady, dated April 3, 1744 (Pearson: Hist. of Sch'dy Patent, p. 37).

On October 30, 1736, Adam Conde married Catherine de Graaf, born Jan. 10, 1719, daughter of Jesse de Graaf and Aeltie (Alida) Hennions (Sanders: Early Hist. of Sch'dy: Trouw-Boek Rfd. Dutch Ch., Sch'dy, 1694-1800). His wife joined the church on July 15, 1742 (Records Rfd. Dutch Ch., 1694-1800).

Dutch was the native language of the early settlers, and English the official language at this period, which resulted in considerable confusion in spelling and in the use of proper names. Variations of the name Conde appear on the records as Konde, Cond, Condey, Condesche, Condie, and Condeze.

On July 18, 1748, Adam Conde was killed by the Indians at the Beukendal massacre, which was one of the last outrages of the old French and Indian war. This occurred near the old De Graaf house about three miles west of Schenectady on the Sacandaga turnpike. This house was still standing in 1920, but has recently crumbled into the cellar. In his boyhood the writer explored this old house, and found holes in the siding claimed to be bullet holes made during this historic fight.

There are a number of accounts of the massacre which differ only in minor details (Pearson: History of Schenectady Patent; Sanders: Early History of Schenectady). The tradition in the Conde family which is fully as authentic as the others, especially as the family has lived for generations in the immediate vicinity, relates that a party of men had assembled to "raise" a barn on the Toll property, near the De Graaf house, when they heard a turkey call up the little creek from which Beukendal, or Beech Valley, gets its name. The party accordingly took their guns and started up the gully in pursuit of the game, but had gone only a short distance when they were ambushed by Indians. Those who survived the first onslaught retreated to the De Graaf house which they defended until relieved by a party of militia from Schenectady. In this skirmish twenty men were killed, Adam Conde being one of the number, and thirteen or fourteen were taken captive and carried back to Canada. The dead were taken to Schenectady and laid out in the barn of Abraham Mabie on Church Street. All these were undoubtedly interred in the old church burying ground which lay under what is now the intersection of State and Church streets; the location now being marked by a stone bearing a bronze tablet. Over this spot now flows the entire traffic across the great new bridge spanning the Mohawk river, dedicated in 1926, and known as the "Great Western Gateway."

FIRST GENERATION.

1. ADAM<sup>1</sup> CONDE, parents unknown, date of birth unknown; came to America as a child, probably after 1704; mar. Oct. 30, 1736, Catherine de Graaf; died July 18, 1748.

Children: 5 (Conde), baptisms recorded in the Doop-Boek of the Reformed Dutch Church at Schenectady:—

- +2. i. Johannes,<sup>2</sup> bapt. May 14, 1738. Witnesses: Johannes Landsing, Lena Sandersen.
- 3. ii. Alida,<sup>2</sup> bapt. April 13, 1740. Wit: Nicolaas de Graaf, Elizabeth de Graaf.
- +4. iii. Jesse,<sup>2</sup> bapt. March 13, 1743. Wit: Simon Tol, Hester de Graaf.
- 5. iv. Eva,<sup>2</sup> bapt. July 21, 1745. Wit: Daniel de Graaf, Eva de Graaf.
- +6. v. Adam,<sup>2</sup> bapt. Sept. 19, 1748. Wit: Hieronymus Barheit, Maria de Graaf. (Posthumous.)

It is noteworthy that the first child was obviously named after Johannes Lansing, who with his wife acted as sponsors or godparents, especially as all the other children were named after the maternal side, and the mother's relatives acted as sponsors. Thus the second child was named for the maternal grandmother; the third for the maternal grandfather; the fourth for a maternal aunt; and the last for his father, who had been killed three months previously; "obiit" appears after the father's name on the record. There could hardly be better evidence of special gratitude or obligation to Johannes Lansing and his wife.

SECOND GENERATION.

2. JOHANNES<sup>2</sup> CONDE, bapt. May 14, 1738. The baptismal record is the only one to be found concerning this eldest son. Sanders, who was personally acquainted with the other two sons, states in his Early History of Schenectady that Jesse was the eldest son, indicating that Johannes was not then living. Sanders is very loose in his statements, so that it does not imply more than that. However, as the family records are very complete with regard to the other two sons, it seems certain that Johannes died in infancy or early childhood.

4. JESSE<sup>2</sup> CONDE, bapt. March 13, 1743; married July 8, 1762, Parthenia Ogden, daughter of Jonathan Ogden, and removed to what is now the town of Charlton, Saratoga Co., New York (Sanders: Early History of Sch'dy; Trouw-Boek, Rfd. Dutch Ch., 1694-1800).

Children: 12 (Conde), all baptized at Schenectady:—

- +7. i. Alida,<sup>3</sup> bapt. Jan. 16, 1763.
- 8. ii. Jonathan,<sup>3</sup> bapt. Aug. 26, 1764; died in infancy.
- +9. iii. Jonathan,<sup>3</sup> bapt. Dec. 14, 1766.
- 10. iv. Adam,<sup>3</sup> bapt. Feb. 12, 1769.
- +11. v. Albert,<sup>3</sup> born May 20, 1771.
- 12. vi. Johannes,<sup>3</sup> bapt. Oct. 17, 1773.

- 13. vii. Wilmot,<sup>3</sup> bapt. Feb. 11, 1776.
- 14. viii. Jesse,<sup>3</sup> bapt. Aug. 23, 1778; died in childhood.
- +15. ix. Susanna,<sup>3</sup> bapt. Aug. 16, 1780.
- 16. x. Nicholas de Graaf,<sup>3</sup> bapt. June 8, 1783.
- +17. xi. Isaac,<sup>3</sup> bapt. Aug. 21, 1785.
- +18. xii. Jesse,<sup>3</sup> bapt. Sept. 4, 1791.

6. ADAM<sup>2</sup> CONDE, bapt. Sept. 19, 1748, three months after his father had been killed at Beukendal; died Sept. 22, 1824. He is buried at West Glenville, Schenectady Co., N. Y.

On July 1, 1770, he married Catalyntje Truax, born March 8, 1751, daughter of Peter Truax and Jacoba van Santvoord (see No. 328, "The House of Truax," Record, Vol. LVIII, pp. 113, 326).

Adam<sup>2</sup> Conde was a baker by trade, and in 1770 lived on the west corner of Church and Front streets, Schenectady, in what was subsequently known as the Jeremiah Fuller property (Sanders: Early Hist. of Sch'dy). During the Revolutionary War, Adam Conde was enlisted in the Second Regt., Albany Co. militia, under Col. Abraham Wemple (New York in the Rev., p. 98, 2nd edition). This service in the Continental Army entitles his descendants to membership in various patriotic organizations.

About the year 1782 he moved his family to Glenville, about eight miles west of Schenectady, where he was one of the pioneer settlers and land owners.

Children: 9 (Conde), all born at Schenectady:—

- +19. i. Johannes,<sup>3</sup> born Sept., 1770.
- +20. ii. Pieter,<sup>3</sup> born July 17, 1773.
- +21. iii. Catherina,<sup>3</sup> born Oct. 2, 1775.
- 22. iv. Jacoba,<sup>3</sup> bapt. Dec. 14, 1777; died in infancy.
- +23. v. Eva,<sup>3</sup> born March 25, 1780.
- +24. vi. Cornelis Santvoord,<sup>3</sup> born Sept. 17, 1782.
- 25. vii. Jacobatje,<sup>3</sup> born Dec. 25, 1784; died Jan. 6, 1805; never married.
- +26. viii. Alida,<sup>3</sup> born Nov. 8, 1788.
- +27. ix. Annatje,<sup>3</sup> born Feb. 28, 1791.

THIRD GENERATION.

7. ALIDA<sup>3</sup> CONDE, bapt. Jan. 16, 1763; died at Albany, N. Y., August 4, 1838. On Jan. 16, 1783, she married James Boyd, son of John and Anne (Logan) Boyd, who was born in County Antrim, Ireland, Feb. 2, 1762, and died at Albany, Feb. 22, 1839. James Boyd served as private in the Revolution under Col. P. P. Schuyler, from 1779 to 1781. He was Supervisor of the town of Schenectady for fourteen years, and in 1811 and 1812 was elected member of the New York State Legislature from Schenectady Co. From 1830 to 1839 he was weighmaster of the Erie Canal at Albany. Eleven children were born to them (Hist. of the Boyd Family; pub. by John F. Smith, Rochester, N. Y., 1912).

9. JONATHAN<sup>3</sup> CONDE, bapt. Dec. 14, 1766; died March 3, 1843; buried in Charlton cemetery. He married Sarah Ogden.

Children: 3 (Conde):—

- 28. i. Caroline Wilmot,<sup>4</sup> born 1811; mar. 1st Seth Lockwood of Schenectady; mar. 2d D. N. Carpenter of Greenfield, Mass.; died at Sandy Hill, N. Y., Jan. 18, 1874. No children.
- 29. ii. —, <sup>4</sup> married Seldon Ely.
- 30. iii. —, <sup>4</sup> married Luke Dows.

11. ALBERT<sup>3</sup> CONDE, born May 20, 1771; died Oct. 1, 1855; mar. Hester Toll, daughter of Daniel Toll and Susan Swits. She was born April 26, 1776; died Oct., 1857.

Children: 11 (Conde):—

- +31. i. Parthenia,<sup>4</sup> born August 5, 1798.
- +32. ii. Eliza,<sup>4</sup> born Dec. 5, 1800.
- +33. iii. Susan,<sup>4</sup> born April 8, 1803.
- +34. iv. Jesse,<sup>4</sup> born March 8, 1805.
- +35. v. Daniel Toll,<sup>4</sup> born Feb. 3, 1807.
- +36. vi. Henry Swits,<sup>4</sup> born May 30, 1809.
- 37. vii. ———,<sup>4</sup> born 1811; died in infancy.
- +38. viii. Catherine,<sup>4</sup> born Feb. 3, 1813.
- +39. ix. Hester,<sup>4</sup> born May 13, 1815.
- +40. x. Alida Ann,<sup>4</sup> born Dec. 30, 1817.
- 41. xi. Charles Albert,<sup>4</sup> born May 26, 1820; died in infancy.

15. SUSANNA<sup>3</sup> CONDE, bapt. Aug. 16, 1780; married Simon de Witt Toll, bapt. May 6, 1780, son of Daniel Toll and Susan Swits. They had one daughter, Catherine, born at Verona, N. Y., who mar. Luther P. Osgood.

17. ISAAC<sup>3</sup> CONDE, born June 23, 1785; bapt. Aug. 21, 1785. The baptismal records of the Rfd. Dutch Ch. give his name simply as Isaac, whereas the family records give it as Isaac Swits or Isaac Schermerhorn. The sponsors at his baptism were Adam Vrooman and Engeltie Schermerhorn, which may account for his middle name.

The following record is said to be taken from the family Bible, but the writer has not verified it, and does not vouch for its accuracy. He married May 11, 1815, Mary Bradford, daughter of James Bradford and Keziah Higbie.

Children: 5 (Conde):—

- 42. i. Jesse James,<sup>4</sup> born Jan. 19, 1817.
- 43. ii. Hester Alida,<sup>4</sup> born Aug. 25, 1819.
- 44. iii. George W.,<sup>4</sup> born Oct. 23, 1824.
- 45. iv. Nancy,<sup>4</sup> born Nov. 28, 1826.
- 46. v. Jane Amanda,<sup>4</sup> born Aug. 18, 1827; mar. Charles Truax in 1843; died in 1845; buried at Scotia, N. Y.

18. JESSE<sup>3</sup> CONDE, bapt. Sept. 4, 1791; married Mary Duell.

Children: 10 (Conde), of whom only two are known by name:—

- 47. i. Eveline E.,<sup>4</sup> married John Brown of Scotland.
- 48. ii. Henry Clay,<sup>4</sup> mar. 1st, Mariette Farrell; mar. 2nd, Catherine Porter.

19. JOHANNES<sup>3</sup> CONDE, born in Sept., 1770; bapt. Nov. 25, 1770; died July 17, 1862. He was married in 1800 to Eunice Gates, born 1781, died Jan. 3, 1844, daughter of Captain Caleb Gates and Elizabeth Branch, of East Haddam, Conn., and granddaughter of Captain Caleb Gates, Sr., a shipmaster who had two of his vessels seized by the British during the Revolution. Johannes Conde and his wife are buried at West Glenville, N. Y. Capt. Caleb Gates and his wife are buried at Charlton, Saratoga Co., N. Y.

In 1782, Johannes Conde, then a boy of twelve years, had the memorable honor of shaking hands with General George Washington when he passed through Schenectady.

In 1831, when the celebrated pioneer railway locomotive "De Witt-Clinton" and its train of converted stage coaches made its initial trip between Albany and Schenectady, Johannes Conde and his brother, Judge Cornelis S. Conde, were among the passengers. Johannes Conde sat on the driver's seat of one of the coaches with the brakeman, who operated the brakes with his foot as on the stage coaches, and by reason of the speed of nine miles per hour and the cloud of sparks flying back from the wood-burning engine, found the experience anything but agreeable.

Johannes Conde was a farmer in Glenville, N. Y., and in true pioneer fashion built first a log house, and subsequently a commodious colonial farm house, in which the writer was born. Still later he built another farm house for his son Charles and his wife, on an adjoining farm.

Mrs. Eunice Gates Conde was noted for her earnest piety and substantial gifts to the church and foreign missions.

Child: 1 (Conde):—

+49. i. Charles Taylor,<sup>4</sup> born Sept. 5, 1803.

20. PIETER<sup>3</sup> CONDE, born July 17, 1773; bapt. July 25, 1773; died May 17, 1843; buried at Charlton, N. Y. He married Dec. 24, 1796, Clara van Patten, born July 15, 1769; died May 8, 1815, daughter of Philip van Patten (or van Petten).

Children: 7 (Conde):—

50. i. Catalyntje,<sup>4</sup> born Feb. 10, 1797.

51. ii. Elizabeth,<sup>4</sup> born Feb. 11, 1799.

52. iii. Adam,<sup>4</sup> born April 30, 1801.

53. iv. Philip van Patten,<sup>4</sup> born Sept. 8, 1803.

54. v. Alida,<sup>4</sup> born April 30, 1806.

55. vi. Sarah Ann,<sup>4</sup> born Sept. 8, 1808.

56. vii. Deborah,<sup>4</sup> born Feb. 17, 1811.

21. CATHERINA<sup>3</sup> CONDE, born Oct. 2, 1775; died Sept. 5, 1815. She married Charles Taylor, and had one son, Charles (Charles Hanse in church record), who was born August 21, 1799.

23. EVA<sup>3</sup> CONDE, born March 25, 1780; bapt. March 26, 1780; died July 30, 1867. She married Dec. 16, 1797, Simon I. van Patten, born Aug. 11, 1776; died Dec. 20, 1851. Both of them are buried in the Glenville cemetery. Ten children were born to them: Eleanor, b. Oct. 15, 1798; Sarah, b. Feb. 6, 1800; Rebecca, b. March 9, 1802 (died in infancy); Catherine, b. Aug. 10, 1804 (died in infancy); George, b. Oct. 29, 1806; Adam, b. Jan. 19, 1810; Rebecca, b. Jan. 31, 1813; Catherine, b. April 10, 1817; Nancy, b. Oct. 23, 1820; and Charles, b. March 27, 1823.

24. CORNELIS SANTVOORD<sup>3</sup> CONDE, born Sept. 17, 1782; bapt. Sept. 29, 1782; died May 18, 1869. He married July 13, 1805, Sarah Truax (No. 421 of "The House of Truax," now running in the Record), born April 3, 1787; died Sept. 1, 1873; daughter of Abraham Truax and Annatje Peek. He was one of the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas of Schenectady County for several years, and subsequently Justice of Sessions for a long term.

They had the remarkable distinction of having a family of thirteen sons, all but one of whom lived to maturity, most of them to old age, and now have descendants living in all parts of the United States.

Children: 13 (Conde):—

+57. i. John T.,<sup>4</sup> born Jan. 17, 1807.

+58. ii. Adam C.,<sup>4</sup> born March 7, 1809.

+59. iii. Abram Truax,<sup>4</sup> born Dec. 20, 1810.

60. iv. Peter P.,<sup>4</sup> born Dec. 2, 1812; died Jan. 23, 1887. Never married.

+61. v. Cornelius Bogardus,<sup>4</sup> born Dec. 27, 1814.

+62. vi. Isaac Henry,<sup>4</sup> born Nov. 17, 1816.

+63. vii. Simon van Patten,<sup>4</sup> born Nov. 17, 1818.

+64. viii. Platt S.,<sup>4</sup> born Aug. 19, 1820.

65. ix. Andrew S.,<sup>4</sup> born Aug. 6, 1822; died July 5, 1837.

+66. x. Joseph S.,<sup>4</sup> born July 31, 1824.

+67. xi. George M.,<sup>4</sup> born Nov. 6, 1826.

+68. xii. Benjamin Luther,<sup>4</sup> born Nov. 1, 1828.

+69. xiii. Alonzo Boyd,<sup>4</sup> born Nov. 6, 1832.

26. ALIDA<sup>3</sup> CONDE, born Nov. 8, 1788; married George Mead, who died Sept. 13, 1867, aged 46 years. They had seven children: Adam, Margaret, Catalina, George, Michael, Eliza and Joel.

27. ANNATJE<sup>3</sup> CONDE, born Feb. 28, 1791; died Sept. 21, 1880. She married, Dec. 15, 1810, Platt B. Smith, son of Joel Smith and Esther Benham. They had five children: Joel Benham, b. Dec. 24, 1812; Adam Conde, b. Nov. 5, 1814; Esther Maria, b. June 11, 1818; Catherine Alida, b. May 6, 1827; John Platt, b. Nov. 2, 1830.

FOURTH GENERATION.

31. PARTHENIA<sup>4</sup> CONDE, born Aug. 5, 1798; died June 4, 1868. She married Ichabod L. Judson, Captain in the U. S. Army in the War of 1812. He was born in 1785 and died in 1865. They had three children: Edmund Lewis, Hester Elizabeth, and Albert Conde.

32. ELIZA<sup>4</sup> CONDE, born Dec. 5, 1800; died April 11, 1891. She married Truman Beman Jones of Charlton, N. Y. They had three children: Charles Albert, Susan Parthenia, and Margaret Celia. The last named married — Wells, and resided at Auburn, N. Y.

33. SUSAN<sup>4</sup> CONDE, born April 8, 1803; married William Spencer of Warsaw, Ill. They had one daughter, Ellen Carter, and two sons.

34. JESSE<sup>4</sup> CONDE, born March 8, 1805; died Sept. 15, 1889. He married Elizabeth Barnum, and resided at Charlton, N. Y.

Children: 2 (Conde):—

+70. i. Albert Hull,<sup>5</sup> born Oct. 28, 1868.

+71. ii. Henry Davenport,<sup>5</sup> born July 29, 1870.

35. DANIEL TOLL<sup>4</sup> CONDE, born Feb. 3, 1807; married in 1836, Andelucia Lée, born 1810; died March 30, 1855, in the Sandwich Islands, daughter of Linus Lee of Jericho, Vermont.

Daniel Toll Conde was ordained to the ministry, and in 1836 sailed with his bride from Boston in the ship "Mary Fraser" as a missionary to the Sandwich Islands, under the auspices of the American Board of Foreign Missions. The mission stations which he served were Wailukee and Lahaina. He returned in March, 1857.

Children: 7 (Conde):—

+72. i. Samuel Lee,<sup>5</sup> born Sept., 1837.

+73. ii. Susan Huntington,<sup>5</sup> born Aug. 11, 1839.

74. iii. Pauline,<sup>5</sup> born Aug. 10, 1841.

+75. iv. Charles Albert,<sup>5</sup> born 1843.

76. v. Mary,<sup>5</sup> born 1845.

+77. vi. Henry Toll,<sup>5</sup> born Sept. 16, 1851.

+78. vii. Lucy Lee,<sup>5</sup> born March 4, 1854.

36. HENRY SWITS<sup>4</sup> CONDE, born May 30, 1809; died April 28, 1878, at Oswego, N. Y. He married Dorcas Peckham, born Aug. 5, 1812; died June 30, 1888. He established knitting mills on the Merrimac River, and subsequently removed his business to Oswego, N. Y.

Children: 6 (Conde):—

+79. i. Anna Eliza,<sup>5</sup> born July 20, 1833.

80. ii. George Peckham,<sup>5</sup> born Oct. 3, 1835; died Dec. 20, 1840.
